U. S. ARMY

Hi Folks.

Well to-day is Sunday - We had to get up for reille at 7 o'clock this morning. It was the first time we had to get up on a Sunday since I came in the Army. We are leaving this camp tomorrow morning. I will write the minute I get to my new location.

I am sending some of my clothes home. We are not allowed to bring any of our clothes other than G.I. to our next camp. I am sending them home by Fred Gillands who is not shipping. I am sending a couple of extra pair of trousers home. Dad + John can have them if they fit. I'll send the rest of today. The cards lost but tomorrow is another day. They have to win 3 in a row, still rooting for them.

We tried to see the Navy Duke game but we could not get there in time. Navy won, get game Not much doing so will close for now
